

(Junior) Associate Private Bank Law

For its Brussels office, Janson is looking for a associate (m/f/x) with excellent academic results and preferably with one or two years of experience in finance & banking law, including private banking.

She/he can join a dynamic and experienced team where, in addition to high-quality service, a sense of entrepreneurship, flexibility, autonomy and team spirit are highly valued. She/he will be coached and supervised by more experienced lawyers who are experts in their fields. Advisory work with Belgian and international financing institutions will all be part of your day-to-day.

Profile

- You hold a Belgian Master's degree in law (with excellent grades). A complementary Master's degree is a plus;
- You have strong interest in Belgian finance and banking law, including private banking;
- You have an excellent knowledge of the general principles of civil law (law of obligations) and contract law;
- You have gained your first professional experience (1 to 2 years) in a law firm. However, we are also open to applications by aspiring lawyers who wish to start their career at the bar;
- You have a practical and solution-oriented mindset;
- You have excellent communication skills and a fluent pen;
- You are a flexible team player; and
- You are a native Dutch speaker, with excellent knowledge of English and French.

What we offer

- A professional, dynamic and friendly working environment;
- The opportunity to tackle challenging cases for Belgian and foreign clients (in a wide range from private individuals and local companies to private equity funds, financial institutions and multinationals);
- A very thorough training by experienced and driven colleagues;
- A competitive remuneration package, including a bonus system in function of the quality of the delivered work and additional benefits;
- Opportunities for professional development in a prominent dynamic, multidisciplinary and autonomous Belgian law firm with special attention for young and ambitious talent.
