Liber.ius – Legal Trainee Position - Stagiaire(e)

Our Firm
Liber.ius is a young and innovative business law firm based in Brussels. We guide and advise our clients through every step on their business journey, from incorporation to sale, and covering everything in between ranging from commercial, contracts, regulatory, employment, tax aspects, data, GDPR, IP, compliance, etc.

As a niche boutique business firm with a strong international outlook, we work together with our national and international clientele in all areas of the legal services. Our lawyers work both independently and in teams, and regularly need support in complex cases, often crossing borders, ensuring any trainee will get abundant exposure to interesting and varied work assignments.

Criteria
We are looking for an ambitious first- or second-year trainee (stagiaire/ stagiaire) who ▪ can work and think independently and proactively

▪ can work out creative solutions to complex legal problems
▪ can handle several files at the same time and be flexible
▪ is reliable in agreements and responsibilities
▪ works accurately and precisely with the greatest care for detail
▪ has a customer-oriented service mindset
▪ is eager to learn by doing
▪ is fluently multilingual (NL/F/E)
▪ has or wants to develop a good understanding of the international business world
▪ can and wants to climb quickly within the workings of the firm
▪ is not averse to some administrative support within the office

Additional information
If you want to prepare yourself at a fast pace for a career as an international business lawyer, learning from a diverse and experienced team, then this is the opportunity for you.

You will work with and for all partners, be involved in different domains and on challenging and complex files. You will also have time left over for your stage obligations and you will be given the space and opportunity to start developing your own business very early on.

We will expect a dedicated and flexible stance, and a demonstrated willingness to work hard and learn as you go.
